Re: "Teen Smart Choices" Presentation

Date: April 15, 2010

Kudos to John Westhaver - the esteemed motivational speaker who engaged a captivated audience of both junior and senior students at Wolcott High School (totaling approximately 431 students) on April 01, 2010. John's presentation "Teen Smart Choices" deserves great praise and accolades. He was focused, dynamic, and right on target with his experiences relating quite well to both the teen and adult audience.

I highly recommend John for future appearances at our school or any other high school that wishes to broach the subject of decision-making, teen choices, and safe driving habits. John delivered a powerful message albeit through his tragic and traumatic events.

Thank you again for offering this opportunity to us not only to meet John but experience his exceptional speaking presentation and important message.
